Mary Jane Logan Married To Gean Le Maire Saturday

Last Saturday morning at a 9 o'clock nuptial ceremony and mass at the Nativity Catholic Church, Miss Mary Jane Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Logan, 20845 S. Margaret St., became the bride of Gean E. Le Maire, son of Mrs. Camella Le Maire of Port Arthur, Texas.

The altar was decorated with white asters and white gladioli and white candles burned in white standards. Mrs. Neil J. McConlogue at the organ provided the wedding marches and nuptial music.

Mr. Logan escorted his daughter to the altar. She was lovely in her wedding gown of French lace and nylon tulle over satin. The gown had a portrait neckline and her fingertip was held by a crown of lace and tulle. The bride's bouquet was a white orchid encircled with stephanotis.

Mrs. Emma Sedillo was the matron of honor wearing cerise net over satin and white tulle. Bridesmaids were Frances Valezuela, Diane Clotson, Barbara Karathas, and Patricia Vincent. They were all in bouffant white net gowns and carried cerise gladioli.

The bride and her father were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Joseph Sedillo. Ushers were Richard Rocco, Henry Valencia and D. O. Green.

Miss Clara Gonzalez was in charge of the guest book. A reception followed at the Moose Hall and the couple left for Riverside to make their home.

The bride was graduated from Banning High School last spring. The bridegroom is a corporal serving with the United States Marine Corps.
